BIBLIOTHECA BODLEIANA

THE CASE

Of the Creditors of the Royal African-Company, now Incorporated with the ſaid Company,

HUMBLY

Repreſented to the Honourable the Houſe of Commons.

THAT the ſaid Creditors, upon the Credit of an Act of Parliament paſs'd laſt Seſſion, have made a final Agreement with the ſaid Company, and Incorporated themſelves therewith; and ſince their ſaid Incorporation, the ſaid Company have raiſed, and are ready (as there ſhall be Occaſion) further to raiſe ſuch a Stock as is ſufficient to enable them to Carry on the Trade to the utmoſt extent it will bear, for the Honour and Advantage of this Kingdom.

The ſaid Creditors and Company ſo Incorporated, therefore humbly hope they ſhall, under the Protection of this Honourable Houſe, enjoy their Rights and Properties, and the Benefits of the Peace, after all their Loſſes by the Wars.

A 1876